“BUT WHAT ABOUT UKRAINE?” TEACHING EMOTIVE AND CONTROVERSIAL HISTORY IN THE SECONDARY CLASSROOM

History teaching can sometimes be overtaken by momentous current events like the invasion of Ukraine or 9/11, prompting pupils to ask anxious questions of worrying events that seem to come out of nowhere and may not have much of a place in the history curriculum. This practical webinar will consider how history teachers might respond via direct teaching, through assemblies or joint planning with Citizenship staff. It will show how emotive and controversial history (whether directly linked to current events or not) might be approached with confidence rather than avoided. Updated reference will be made to the Historical Associations important Teaching Emotive and Controversial History 3-19 report of which the presenter was a co-author.

This session will take place on

Wednesday 19th October 2022

From 4:00 - 5:30pm
